Lee Co.

Farley, Garrett, Nelms, Sparks, Collier

CA-Divorce
T-Vices

To the honorable J. A. W. Sheen Judge of the Circuit Court of Lee County Va.
Humbly complaining your orator, Henry Gibbons, would respectfully represent and shew unto your honor; that he was married to Louisa Farley his present wife, on the 20th day of June 1904, in said County, and they lived together as man and wife until the 16th day of October 1904, when he became satisfied, that his said wife had been guilty of adultery with other man at and near his residence, in said County, on and before the said 16th day of Oct 1904, and since the said 16th day of Oct 1904, he has not lived, or cohabited, with his said wife; and that the said acts of adultery were not committed, by his procurement or connivance.

The object therefore of this bill is to obtain a divorce from the bonds of matrimony existing between your orator and his said wife. To this end he makes the said Louisa Gibbons, the party defendant hereto and asks that she be required to answer the same, but not on oath, answer under oath being waived, and that on a hearing the relief alone prayed for be granted together with all such other further and general relief as his cause may merit. And your orator will ever pray &c.

Henry Gibbons, Complainant,

Vs. Divorce

Louisa Gibbons, Defendant.

To the Hon.H.A.W.Skeen,Judge of the Circuit Court for Lee County:

The demurrer and answer of Louisa Gibbons to a Bill in Chancery exhibited in the Circuit Court for Lee County against your respondent by Henry Gibbons,for a divorce.

Your respondent comes and says that the said bill of the said complainant is not sufficient in law to call upon her to answer,in that it does not aver jurisdiction of the court,it being provided by law that the complainant must have resided in the State and in the county for at least 12 month previous to the institution of such suit,and no such allegation is made. The said bill is intended to be a bill for divorce on the ground of adultery,yet the said complainant has not sufficiently alleged the commission of adultery. He says in his bill that "on the day of October,1904,he became satisfied that his said wife had been guilty of adultery",neither does the said bill allege with whom the adultery was believed to have been committed,all of which allegations your respondent is advised are necessary to make a good bill for divorce.

Yet your said respondent not waiving her said demurrer,should other and furthur answer be required of her,answering she says that she most empatically denies that she has ever in her life,before or after her marriage with the said Gibbons was guilty of that crime of adultery. She alleges that all such allegations brought against her and her character in this suit is a falsehood. Your respondent says that she would have no objection to the court granting the said Gibbons a divorce if it could be legally done, and she comes not in this suit resisting a decree for a divorce but to vindicate her character against the false and slanderous charge of adultery. Your respondent is an old woman with many grandchildren, and through her entire life has tried to live a correct life and be an upright woman, and the thought of adultery has always been and is now as far from her mind as the east from the west, and it is to clear her name and refute the slander brought against her in this suit, that her name may stand clear to her children and her grandchildren, and her posterity that will follow her. And now having answered as fully as your respondent deems it necessary that she should answer, prays to be hence dismissed with her reasonable costs in this behalf expended.

He said to her that she would like to have Mr. Gibbons to sleep with this winter, and she said nothing back to him. He asked her if she didn't want Mr. Gibbons to sleep with her, and asked her how close he would sleep to her, and also asked her if she would not like to tangle legs, or tangle feet, with Gibbons. We all laughed at it, and I don't think she answered. He talked on a lot of stuff, I can't remember all.

Q.4.-- When Mrs. Gibbons lived near you, did you observe Mr. Collier visiting Mrs. Gibbons or visiting her house, and if so how often?

A.--I did notice him visiting there. She lived about twenty yards back of our house. Sometimes he would be there as much as two or three times a week, and maybe sometimes oftener. I could not say just exactly how often.

Q.5.-- About what time of day did he generally go to Mrs. Gibbons' if you observed?

A.-- Just at any time, no particular time.

Q.6.-- Please state whether or not you ever saw him carrying any provisions of any kind to Mrs. Gibbons or in that direction?

A.-- I have seen him carrying provisions in that direction, generally a shoulder of meat or a ham of meat or a side of meat. He would usually stop and talk a minute and say he was taking the things to Mr. Stewart.

Q.7.-- Where did Mr. Stewart live?

A.-- He lived about a half of mile beyond Mrs. Gibbons' and in the same direction. He had to go right by Gibbons in going to Stewarts'

Q.8.-- Did you ever see Mr. Collier hauling any wood to Mrs. Gibbons'?

A.-- I have. He hauled the wood pretty much all one winter while she lived there. He brought some hands there and began making a road through our place to Mrs. Gibbons'. I went and told my husband about it and he told me to go and tell Mr. Collier to not dig there, and that if he did keep on he would have to get a warrant for him. I went and told Mr. Collier, and he said he would have a road through there to Mrs. Farley's (now Gibbons) if it cost him $50.00, and ~~XXXXXXXXXX~~, but he quit working.

Q.9.-- Did you ever observe Mr. Collier and Mrs. Gibbons there at her house alone, and if so for what length of time?

A.--I never saw them there alone by themselves. I saw him one Sunday there, he staid pretty much all day, with no one there with them except her little boy who was about 7 or 8 years old.

Q.10.-- Did you ever see Mr. Collier and Mrs. Gibbons together anywhere else and if so when and what were they doing?

A.-- She went over to his house one day and he came back with her. The little boy was along that time, and that is the only time I ever saw them passing around by themselves.

Q.11.-- Was Mr. Collier, at the times you speak of, a married man or single?

A.-- He was a married man. His wife died about two months ago.

Q.12.-- Was Mrs. Gibbons married about that time?

A.-- She was a widow at that time.

Q.13.-- When Mr. Collier was visiting Mrs. Gibbons, did he ever have his fox dogs along with him?

A.-- He did.

Q.14.-- Did you ever observe Mr. Collier at Mrs. Gibbons' after night, and if so at what time of night?

A.-- I have heard him there after night, heard his voice, and heard his dogs. Some times we couldn't sleep for his dogs barking. Sometimes we would hear the dogs there all night.

Cross Examination.

X.Q.1.-- Of your own knowledge do you know anything of any improper relations or conduct between John Collier and Mrs. Gibbons?

A.--I do not. I never saw a thing wrong with them with my own eyes.

X.Q.2.-- The times that you speak of hearing dogs barking at her house, did you see the dogs, or was you simply guessing it to be Mr. Collier's dogs?

A.-- I generally saw the dogs pass as they went out there and he would generally stay until in the night

X.Q.3.-- Would you see him leave there after night?

A.-- No, I don't think I ever saw him leave, but I have heard him talking out there at night. I saw his hounds in the day time and heard them bark, and when I heard them at night I was almost certain they were his hounds that were barking.

X.Q.4.-- At the time you saw Mr. Collier going to Mrs. Farley's was your family and Mr. Collier's family friendly and on good terms?

A.-- When we first moved up there my husband and Mr. Collier were very friendly, but soon afterwards Mr. Collier seemed to get ruffled about something. Then he and my husband had a few words about that road. They spoke when they met but Mr. Collier seemed a little cool. After Mrs. Farley moved away from there he got very friendly again.

X.Q.5.-- While Collier and Mr. Garrett were friendly and before Collier got ruffled at something, he came to your house frequently did he not and visited you all in the usual way?

A.-- He did. He was there backwards and forwards as a neighbor.

X.Q.6.-- Isn't John Collier a man who drops in to see his neighbors when on good terms with them very frequently?

A.-- He is. He is a good hearted and friendly man, and will divide anything in the world he has with his neighbors.

Re Examination.

Q.-- Have you any ill-feeling towards Mr. Collier?

A.-- I have not.

And further this deponent saith not.

The depositions of John Collier and others, taken before me, Geo.F.Gridlin, a Commissioner in Chancery for the Circuit Court of Lee County, Virginia, on the 21st day of November, 1904, pursuant to notice hereto attached, at the law office of R.L.Pennington in the town of Jonesville, Virginia, which depositions are intended to be read as evidence on behalf of defendant, in a certain suit in chancery now depending in the Circuit Court of Lee County, in which Henry Gibbons is plaintiff and Louisa Gibbons defendant.

Present: R.L.Pennington for defendant,

James W.Orr for plaintiff.

John Collier a witness of lawful age being duly sworn deposes as follows:

Q.1.-- State your age and place of residence.

A.-- I am 48 years old, reside about three miles east of Jonesville, Q.2.-- Are you acquainted with Louisa Gibbons?

A.-- I am, have known her ever since she was a small girl.

Q.3.-- On the 20th day of June, 1904, she was married to Henry Gibbons, and the plaintiff alleges lived with her until the 16th day of October, 1904, when they separated. Mr. Gibbons has now brought a suit for a divorce, alleging adultery, and defendant's counsel is informed that the adultery charged was with you. You will please state whether at any time, Mrs. Gibbons has ever been guilty of adultery with you or any other improper conduct?

A.-- She has never been guilty of adultery with me, or of any other improper conduct with me. I have never seen anything wrong out of her.

Q.4.-- Can you state that so far as you know she is a woman of pure and chaste character.

A.-- I can. I never heard anything alleged against her until this suit.

Q.5.-- How close do you live to her?

A.-- I guess it is about two miles.

Q.6.-- Who was Mrs. Gibbons before she was married to Henry Gibbons?

A.-- She was the widow of Willis Farley.

Q.7.-- About what do you think is her age?

A.-- I guess she is about 52 years old. She is older than I am.

Q.8.-- Defendant's counsel are also informed that on the 16th day of October last, Mr. Gibbons alleges that there was some improper conduct between you and Mrs. Gibbons, an occasion at which Gibbons was locked out of the house and you and others were locked in the house. You will please state what happened on that occasion and who locked the door?

A.-- On the day mentioned I went to Mrs. Gibbons' house to hire her to come and stay at my house. My wife was sick and I was in need of some one to stay. I had heard that Gibbons and his wife had parted. When I went there the old man Gibbons was there. Sam Farley and his wife, George Terry's wife, John Farley and her Grand son, Morgan William's boy, were there. I said to Mr. Gibbons that I had come over to hire him and his wife to come over to our house and work for us. He said he couldn't hire that he had ~~xxxxxx~~ his wood chopping to do. Mrs. Gibbons came in after awhile with some milk, I suppose she had been out milking. I told her I had come over to hire her and the old man, but he wouldn't hire as he had his wood to chop. She said she couldn't go because they had their cane to make up. We were out in the yard when the above conversation took place. The two boys above spoken of were in the room by a fire. I had walked across the ridge and had gotten a little warm and thought I would stop in the house by the fire. After I went in, perhaps, ten minutes, Mrs. Gibbons came in, and then John Farley shut the door and fastened it, in a moment Mr. Gibbons came to the door and said let him in. John Farley told him, as I remember, that he had left about a week ago, and took all he had with him, and had left and said he wasn't going to stay there any longer, and that he wasn't going to let him in, that it was not his home, and he didn't have anything there. The old man said I am not going to ask to get in another time, and then started on off, and immediately I got up and left.

Cross Examination.

X.Q.1.-- You say you have known the defendant since she was a small girl, and that she lived near you several years?

A.-- Yes sir.

X.Q.2.-- How far did she live from you when Willis Farley her first husband died?

A.-- Hardly a mile.

X.Q.3.-- How long did she continue to live there after his death?

A.-- Some three to five years I guess.

X.Q.4.-- How far was her residence during that time from the residence of Silas Garrett?

A.-- Near about one-half mile.

X.Q.5.-- How long did she live that near to Silas Garrett?

A.-- About two or three years.

X.Q.6.-- Was it in sight of Mr. Garrett's?

A.-- It was not where Garrett first lived, but afterwards he built nearer where she lived and in sight.

X.Q.7. How long did she lived in sight of Mr. Garrett's?

A.-- I guess not more than one year.

X.Q.8.-- Was she living there when she married Mr. Gibbons?

A.-- No she had moved away from that place.

X.Q.9.-- How far did she live from you when she married Gibbons?

A.-- Two miles I guess.

X.Q.10.-- Did you ever visit Mrs. Gibbons while she lived in one-half mile of Mr. Garrett's?

A.-- Yes sir, I have been there.

X.Q.11.-- How often did you visit her?

A.-- Maybe once a month or two or three times a year. I could not state how often.

X.Q.12.-- How often did you visit her while she lived in sight of Mr. Garrett's?

A.-- I might have been there a dozen times a year, or more or less. They came after me to haul wood for them once and a while and I would go there and haul for them. They visited us and we visited them.

We were just neighbors.

X.Q.13.-- Do you state positively that no improper conduct occurred between you and Mrs. Gibbons during all these visits or at any other time?

A.-- I do state that positively.

X.Q.14.-- After she moved to where she lived when she and the plaintiff were married, did you visit her any at that place.

A.-- I did. She owed us some and I took yarn there to have her to knit socks for our children.

X.Q.15.-- You say that you had been informed that the plaintiff and defendant had separated?

A.-- Yes sir.

X.Q.16.-- What cause did you understand had brought about the separation?

A.-- I understood that he was jealous of his wife.

X.Q.17.-- On the 16th of October, when you say you were at ~~xxxx~~ her house, do you remember Mr. Gibbons looking in at the window while the door was fastened?

A.-- I don't remember, he might have done it.

X.Q.18.-- How many rooms are in that house?

A.-- One room and a small kitchen with a porch between.

X.Q.19.-- Which room were you and Mrs. Gibbons in?

A.-- We were in the main room.

X.Q.20.-- Was any one else in that room?

A.-- Two boys. One her son and the other her grandson.

X.Q.21.-- Who was in the other room?

A.-- If anybody I don't know it.

X.Q.22.-- Where was Mrs. Terry?

A.-- She was in the yard when the boy fastened the door, and I didn't see her after that.

X.Q.23.-- How long has the plaintiff Henry Gibbons, ~~xxxxxxxxxxxx~~ been a citizen of this County?

A.-- For several years.

And further this deponent saith not.
